

POZDRAV!

Immerse yourself in the ancient and medieval treasures of the island-dappled Dalmatian Coast, an alluring region rich in Roman ruins, medieval towns, gorgeous rivieras and idyllic islands that remains largely undiscovered by American travelers. Join us at the maritime crossroads of Europe to experience the romance and art of Venice before setting sail across the glistening blue waters of the Adriatic aboard the yacht-like M.S. MONET for some of Europe's most enchanting ports. During your journey, explore the Roman legacy of Split, walk in the footsteps of Marco Polo in his birthplace of Korčula and step back into the 15th century as you stroll along the winding streets of Dubrovnik's perfectly restored Gothic and Romanesque quarters. Enhance your enjoyment and understanding of the region's fascinating history and mélange of cultures by attending specially arranged lectures, a musical performance and discussions with local citizens and experts, including leading preservationists in Venice and Dubrovnik.
